

"WHO'S WHO" BUSINESS INDEX

MIKE'S VARIETY—"We have almost everything in here," says Michael Nazak, owner of Mike's Variety at 1639 West Carson St., Torrance. Nazak and his wife have been in business at that location since May 12. At Mike's, the shopper can find greeting cards, notions, hardware, cosmetics, electrical appliances, stationary, jewelry, candy, and kitchen goods, to name a few of the items available there. Before opening his variety store, Nazak and his wife were in the hearing aid business. They have three children, all of whom are "grown up," according to the businessman.

MITCHONICS—Partners Jim and Ted Mitchell, brothers, have been in the stereo component repair and installation business at Mitchonics, 20826 So. Vermont, since April. The brothers, who have lived in Torrance for seven years, have two years of college behind them. Jim spent one year at the University of Maryland and one year at the University of Cambridge in England studying electrical engineering. Ted spent one year at El Camino College and one year at Oregon State University studying sales and bookkeeping. He previously worked with the Vernon Fire Department and Jim worked with Superior Electronics in Burbank.

THE GUN SHOP—Everything and anything necessary to begin or to supplement a hobby in guns can be found at the Gun Shop, 330 South Catalina, Redondo Beach. Owner Leon Bruce Blizzard, who can be contacted at FR 4-6646, features new and used rifles, pistols and shotguns. He specializes in expert gun smithing and gun building. At the Gun Shop, the hobbyist can find reloading supplies and components, sights, scopes, ammunition, holsters and gun cases. Blizzard, who began his business with guns in 1937, presently is captain of the Palos Verdes Police Pistol team and has won several awards for his shooting skill.
